1. Purpose

Naari Led Vyapaar is not designed to create one-time participants.

It is designed to create lifelong community members.

Every interaction should strengthen trust, confidence, and belonging.

The founder experience is as important as the marketing itself.

2. Experience Philosophy

Our goal is simple:

Every founder should leave with more confidence than she had when she joined.

Even if she is never featured.

Even if she never wins.

Even if she receives no direct business.

Participation itself should create value.

3. The Founder Lifecycle

A founder's journey is designed in ten stages:

4. Stage 1 – Discovery

Stage 1 Discovery "Maybe this is for people like me."	TLT's Goal Create hope. Desired Emotion Curiosity. Touchpoints • Instagram reels • Founder stories • Community shares • Referrals • Word of mouth Success Indicator "I should learn more."
---	--

5. Stage 2 – Consideration

Stage 2 Consideration "Will they really value my story?"	TLT's Goal Remove fear. Desired Emotion Trust. Communication Style • Warm • Inclusive • Simple • Non-intimidating Message "You don't need a big business. You only need the courage to build one."
--	---

6. Stage 3 – Application

Stage 3 Application

*"I hope I belong
here."*

Experience Standards

- Avoid unnecessary complexity.
- Only collect information that serves the campaign.

The founder should feel appreciated before selection.

Create relationships before transactions.

9. Stage 6 – Visibility

Experience Standards

- Celebrate the person before the product.

Team Responsibility

- Ensure the founder receives assets she can proudly share.
- Encourage her to involve her audience in the movement.

10. Stage 7 – Celebration

Stage 7 Celebration

Principle

Recognition builds belonging.

11. Stage 8 – Community

13. Stage 10 – Leadership

Stage 10 Leadership

"Now I want to help someone else."

Long-term participants should become:

- Mentors
- Speakers
- Judges
- Workshop hosts
- Community ambassadors
- Annual event leaders

Principle

The highest honour is to return and uplift the next generation.

14. Founder Happiness Metrics

Track:

Response satisfaction	Onboarding experience	Community participation	Feature satisfaction
Recommendation likelihood	Sense of belonging	Confidence gained	Collaboration formed

The emotional experience should be measured alongside analytics.

15. Moments That Matter

The experience is defined by key moments:

First discovery

Application confirmation

Welcome message

First reply in the community

Feature announcement

Live participation

Campaign closing

First collaboration

Annual reunion

Every one of these moments should be intentional.

16. Service Standards

- ◆ Every founder query should receive a response within 24 hours.
- ◆ Every concern should be acknowledged respectfully.
- ◆ Every conversation should preserve dignity.
- ◆ Every communication should leave the founder feeling heard.

The quality of interactions will define the reputation of the movement.

17. Experience Recovery Plan

If a founder feels overlooked, confused, or disappointed:

1. Listen fully.
2. Respond personally.
3. Clarify transparently.
4. Offer a constructive next step.
5. Follow up after resolution.

Protecting trust is more important than protecting pride.

18. The Legacy Journey

A woman discovers Naari Led Vyapaar.

She hesitates but applies.

She shares her story.

She receives encouragement.

She gains visibility.

She meets another founder.

They collaborate.

Her confidence grows.

Her business grows.

Years later, she returns to the annual Naari Led Vyapaar Festival—not as a participant, but as a mentor standing on stage, inspiring another woman who is taking her first step.

That is the true success of this movement.

19. Founder Experience Promise

We promise that every founder who enters Naari Led Vyapaar will leave with something valuable:

A connection.
A lesson.
A memory.
A story.
A supporter.
An opportunity.
Or simply the confidence to continue.

Because sometimes, being seen is the beginning of becoming.

20. The Founder Journey Statement

*We don't measure success by how many founders join us.
We measure success by how many continue building because they joined us.*

21. The Experience North Star

Every decision should answer one question:

"Will this make a founder feel more seen, more valued, and more confident?"

If the answer is yes, we are building the right movement.

If the answer is no, we must rethink the experience.

22. Closing Reflection

Naari Led Vyapaar is not a platform that gives women permission to dream.

It is a platform that reminds them they never needed permission.

It simply offers them a stage, a community, and a promise:

You build.

We'll help the world discover you.

Discover. Connect. Rise.
